PUSD OKs Position Paper On Merger

Trustees of the Placentia Unified School District Monday night unanimously approved a brief paper stating conditions under which the district would consider a merger with the Yorba Linda Elementary School District.

The paper, accepted with a minimum of dialogue, brought out five conditions to be considered by the Fullerton Union High School District, which now provides secondary education for Yorba Linda students at Troy High School and three conditions for the Yorba Linda district.

The paper was prepared by Superintendent of PUSD Schools John O. Tynes and was prefaced with the statement that the PUSD staff had studied the position papers of the Fullerton district and Yorba Linda district before making the following recommendations.

1. The Fullerton Union High School District would accept the base revenue of the Placentia Unified School District or some alternative that would not be a financial hardship on the district in payment of tuition for students remaining at Troy High School during the transition period.

2. All properties owned by the Fullerton Union High School District in the Yorba Linda School District would be transferred to the Placentia Unified School District according to the provisions of the Education Code. (This would include a high school site).

3. The receiving district, the Placentia Unified School District, would make every effort to employ personnel of the Fullerton Union High School District according to need on a reverse seniority basis. The pupil/teacher ratios of the Placentia Unified School District would be used as a basis for the number of employees to be employed.

4. Personal property subject to division by the Education Code would remain with the Fullerton Union High School District.

5. The position of the Placentia Unified School District is subject to change as changes in school finance legislation, school district organization legislation or other circumstances may warrant.

The paper continues: The staff further recommends that the Yorba Linda School District agree to the following conditions:

1. Any future building in the district would be according to the master plan of the district.

2. Any need to improve plants and education programs of either district would have to proceed according to a priority order determined by the health, safety and educational needs of the students.

3. The Yorba Linda School District residents would bring a bonded indebtedness to the union equivalent to the bonded indebtedness of the Placentia Unified School District.

Trustees indicated that there may be some slight rewording of the

THE STARS AND STRIPES that fly over the veterans Memorial Fountain in Kraemer Park, a gift to citizens of Placentia from Mr. and Mrs. Edward Backs, once flew over the nation's Capitol Building. At the dedication of the fountain last year, a color guard, representing the four branches of the armed services, carefully raised the special flag for the first time [shown above], where it still flies. July 4th, 1976, in the Bicentennial year, is the first Fourth-of-July for the special memorial since its dedication. The uniquely beautiful fountain honors Those Who Served Their Country With Courage And Love.

A BIRTHDAY GIFT

A Revolutionary idea is 200 years old.

Has the great experiment worked? The notion that man has the right and ability to govern himself?

It's spectacular when an individual lives to be 100 years of age. Perhaps it is even more of a phenomenon when a country has managed to maintain its freedom, from any type of oppression, to its Bicentennial.

This nation certainly is not the first, nor unfortunately the last to be severed by the internal wars of total disagreement. But perhaps the great sacrifice in lives of the Civil War, was not in vain. Perhaps we learned from it and made the great experiment a little wiser and a lot more valid.

It is difficult to think of freedom and not be caught up simultaneously in the aura of concern for the repeated legion of young men who have been called upon to sacrifice their lives to preserve it.

Have the survivors acknowledged the debt and made assertedly sure that it was worth the ultimate price they paid?

What will we do with the next 200 years? Improve our prophecy? Find a cure for our animosities and misunderstandings? Or is that the impossible dream?

Or, instead, shall we threaten the system just a little by trying to make it bend too much? By asking of it too much? By trying to personally use and abuse it too much?

Or by leaving its fate in the hands of "other" people, who will surely find time to see that the ship of state sails straight and sure?

Can we hold onto this revolutionary idea in this modern and advancing age? Can we make it work for another 200 years? And what are the alternatives if we don't.

Street Sweeper An Issue In Budget Talks

Whether it will be more economical for the city of Placentia to buy a new street sweeper for $52,000 or contract for street sweeping from an outside source was expected to be deliberated Tuesday night.

City councilmen, hurrying to meet a June 30 deadline for approving the city's 1976-77 budget, were scheduled to complete their deliberations at a final session Tuesday.

In dialogue a week ago, council members were divided on the street sweeping issue, but tentatively put a sweeper into the annual budget. Current equipment is not expected to last through another calendar year even with repair.

Payment for the sweeper also became an issue with Councilman Donald Holt stating strongly that he would not approve such purchases of depreciating equipment from the city's utility tax funds. However, he acquiesced that the sweeper temporarily be listed under that account as no other means could readily be found to pay for it.

A reassessment will be made in August when the city finds out just what its revenues will be. At that time the sweeper might be appropriated from the general fund or property taxes could be raised to pay for it.

No formal vote was taken to ascertain how the new council lines up on expenditures from utility tax funds although a difference in opinion has been evident in every budget session in which council members have participated.

The utility tax since its passage, has generally been considered

Councilwoman Farmer Leaves Corona Post

Mrs. Virginia Farmer, Placentia's first elected city councilwoman and the top vote getter in the last council election, has resigned her position as assistant planner for the city of Corona.

The resignation was effective Friday.

Mrs. Farmer said this week that a statement in a Corona newspaper that she will be working for a Los Angeles architectural firm is not accurate. The councilwoman said instead that she will not at this time be accepting full time employment but may do some free lance work on brochures and other written materials.

Before her position in Corona, Mrs. Farmer was the chief planning official in Norco for 3½ years. She also interned in Placentia with City

Five Arrested In Murder Case

Charges of first degree murder have been filed against five individuals in the death of Ervin Leroy Sutton, 22, of Garden Grove, found bound, gagged and stabbed in a Placentia orange grove April 27.

The arrests culminated seven weeks of investigation by the Placentia Police Department with assistance from the Orange County District Attorney's office.

No announcement was made as to which of the individuals will be charged with the actual murder thought to have been caused by suffocation.

Arrested in Santa Ana Wednesday were Richard Hamilton McKay, 22 and his wife Tana La-Shon McKay, 30, at their home there.

Arrests Thursday included Gary

Library Board Approves $611,459 Budget

With few alterations, trustees of the Placentia Library District voted approval for their $611,459 1976-77 budget at a meeting Wednesday night.

One allocation added to the active budget from capital reserves was $6,000 for a joint election with the Placentia Unified School District in March, 1977. Seats on the library board involved are those held by Irene Czaplinski and Alfred Aguirre.

Approval of the 1967-77 budget, which is $80,000 larger than last year's was by a vote of 4 yesses to one abstention. Not voting was newly seated trustee John Koval who had not been appointed in time to attend the prior budget sessions.

Prominent in the budget are allocations for salaries and employee benefits at $230,000; and services and supplies at $198,400. The latter figure includes the $72,000 annual payment on the new library building.

Total fixed assets are listed at $173,032 with an appropriation for contingencies of $10,027. Capital reserves held by the library, from the sale of land previously owned, at Kraemer Boulevard and Morse Avenue, are $133,032.

English Muffins Build Here

A new West Coast facility for the baking and distribution of Thomas' English Muffins was given approval for its development in Placentia Tuesday night by the city's planning commission.

The large facility with a 42,000 square foot building, will locate on the southeast corner of Crowther and Placentia Avenues. Included in the development will be office, production and warehousing facilities.

The building is being designed for future expansion up to 63,000 square feet and outside storage of flour will be provided by eight silos. A railroad spur line on the south property line will service the silos and the site will also contain an accessory truck maintenance building with a 1,000 gallon underground gasoline storage tank.

The facility, one of 150 that S.B. Thomas, Inc. of Totowa, New Jersey has throughout the world, is expected to hire 100 people in Placentia.

All Day Celebration For Fourth

A day-long, community-wide gala celebration of the Fourth of July, culminating with a free $2,000 fireworks show, will unfold Sunday for the citizens of Placentia as a Bicentennial salute.

Activities will range from the Valencia High School Auditorium, with the opening event, to Kraemer Park for an All 50 States Picnic and on to Bradford Stadium for fun, games and fireworks.

The public is invited to participate in all the events, although the fireworks show has been designated for Placentians only.

An opening community program will begin at 10 a.m. in the Valencia Auditorium under the sponsorship of the First Church of the Nazarene of Placentia.

Guest speaker will be Rob Scribner, running back for the Los Angeles Rams. Music will be provided by the Californians Gospel Quartet. The ROTC unit from El Dorado High School will present colors.

Nursery care is available at the church at Chapman and Walnut Avenues and more information is available at 528-1742.

The Old Fashioned All States Picnic is scheduled for 2 p.m. in Kraemer Park with entertainment to emanate from the Showmobile. Picnic participants are to bring their own lunches and sign in on lists of their native states.

Sponsored by the city's Bicentennial Committee, entertainment will include music by the Village Singers who will present nostalgic tunes such at "Let's Fall In Love," "Dixie", "Am I Blue" and a vocal montague from the roaring 20s. Also entertaining will be the North Orange County Sweet Adelines, who will harmonize from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Celebrants move next to Bradford Stadium where food and game booths will be available, along with old fashioned gag games.

Entertainment will be provided before the 9 p.m. fireworks show featuring magician Doug Hoover, performing at 7 p.m.

The Frank Freeman Revue will run from 8 to 9 p.m., presenting Frank Freeman, local resident and professional musician, who will headline the "Songfest".

Joining him in tracing American history in song will be Deanna Musgrove, this year's newly crowned Miss Placentia. She will repeat her Miss Placentia Pageant

HOW HOT WAS IT?--Pick a number from one to ten and add 100 and it wouldn't be too far wrong on recounting Placentia weather over the past week. An unseasonal heat wave sent Placentians scurrying for their swimming pools, their neighbors or if those were all full, off to the beach, which was full also. Predictions were for a cooling trend...into the 90s. Undaunted are the fish above, members of Swim Team of Placentia who found the situation ideal for what they enjoy most, a nice refreshing swim. In the picture are Saundra Oberle, Lee Duncan, Lori McAfee and Ann Duncan.

Groundbreaking Scheduled For John Tynes School

A ground breaking ceremony for the $2.6 million John O. Tynes Elementary School, which will have special facilities for the handicapped, will be held at 8 a.m. Thursday, July 1 at the site of the school.

The facility which is expected to be completed for the school year, September, 1977, is located east of the Placentia Civic Center and north of Chapman Avenue.

The public is invited to attend.

Fire Trailer May Become Medical Clinic

A decision not to auction off a 54-foot trailer, which once housed Placentia firemen at Station House No. 1, was approved for 30 days by the Placentia City Council which took it off of the auction block.

The trailer may be suitable for a Community Medical Clinic which is now using facilities at the Whitten Community Center.

Among problems in using the Whitten Center is that trash from the clinic accumulates there, residents report and the kitchen facility is used as part of the laboratory and for disposal of wastes through the kitchen sink.

If the board of the clinic decides the trailer, which has both a bathroom section and kitchen facility, might be suitable for the clinic's use, it could be arranged on a permanent basis, Dennis Kaufman, clinic director reports, instead of sanitizing each time, whatever facility is used.

Problems to be considered are where the trailer might be set up with utility connections and still be accessible to the public.

The clinic operates on volunteer medical services from local doctors and has been open on Tuesday nights.

If the trailer is suitable and put to use, Kaufman said it might enable more extensive medical services for the community with more hours and days.

In a paper delivered to the Placentia City Council by Social Services Director Fred West, West outlined that the trailer could possibly be remodeled into two examining rooms, a laboratory, a restroom and a waiting room.

Escrow Closes On City Sale

Escrow has closed on a city-owned building at 125 South Bradford Avenue, Placentia, purchased by Mr. and Mrs. David J. Araujo for use as a plumbing repair shop.

The Spanish style building was originally purchased by the city in August, 1963 from the Pacific Telephone Company for $6,000. The selling price to the Araujos was $36,500.

Mr. and Mrs. Araujo made a down payment of $7,300 and the city has agreed to carry the first trust deed of $29,200 for 20 years at a 10 per cent interest rate with payments of $281.80 a month.

The complete transaction will amount to $74,932 over the 20 year period, less costs of $3,0679.40 for realtors fees, escrow and other costs, the city finance department pointed out.

A Closer Look

One act of concern from each of us. A little foresight and wisdom in what we do. The notion and obligation that the price of freedom is not free and on the open market but is something to which we all must contribute some share to make it work.

How many unreasonable demands can the system take and survive? How much bureaucratic bungling, selfishness, greed and dishonesty? And how much stupidity?

None of us will be around 200 years from now to find out what the answers were to the problems. But on this the country's 200th birthday, perhaps it is fitting that each of us, as with any other relative of whom we are very fond, think anonymously of some appropriate personal consideration as a gift for our Uncle Sam.

PAINFUL REMINDERS of the horrors of life and death in German Concentration Camps during World War II are drawing the attention of the public with a display at the Placentia Library. The memories, pictures, books are those of Meivin Mermelstein, the only member of his family to escape from the camps alive. Mermelstein was 17 when he was forced into imprisonment. Library Director David Snow is on the left.

Francis Addy Dies

Memorial services were held Saturday for John Francis Addy, a long time resident of this area and for 16 years superintendent of the Placentia Unified School District.

Addy died Wednesday at Good Samaritan Hospital in Anaheim following a long illness. He was 72 at the time of his death.

A native of Iowa, Addy taught school in that state before moving to Yorba Linda where he taught in the elementary school district there. After serving as vice principal at Fullerton High School he became an assistant superintendent for PUSD before accepting the top post.

A past president of the Placentia Rotary Club, Addy also was active in Boy Scout work and received the Silver Beaver Award, Scouting's highest adult honor. He was twice president of the North Orange County Council of Boy Scouts and was honored by the 5th District PTA for outstanding service to the community.

He is survived by his wife Dorothy of Fullerton, a daughter, a brother, two sisters and four grandchildren.

Addy donated his body to science. Memorial gifts in his name will be accepted by the Orange County Council of Boy Scouts.

Valencia Bank Will Expand

An additional 1,286 square feet to be added to the Valencia Bank Building of 4,356 square feet, was approved unanimously by the Placentia Planning Commission Tuesday night.

The facility is located on the southwest corner of Chapman Avenue and Murray Street.

The added space will provide conference rooms and additional office area. New sections will be built on both the east and west ends of the present structure, Alex Knox, bank manager, explained.

Retail Uses Approved For Town Center

The Placentia Planning Commission reduced to four members Tuesday night, gave unanimous approval to new planning for the section of Placentia's Town Center that lies between the post-office and the Century Federal Savings and Loan Building.

The property is on Kraemer Boulevard, north of Morse Avenue.

The Placentia City Council recently overruled the commission on the exclusion of retail commercial uses in a planned three unit interconnected building, possibly providing seven tenant spaces.

Site development plans as proposed were approved Tuesday and added as possible retail commercial uses were clothing, shoe store, off-sale liquor and delicatessen, home improvement, appliance, barber-beauty shop, books, pharmacy, photography and a hardware.

Office uses allowed include real estate, medical-dental and general office.

Robert W. Johnson spoke for the applicant Santa Anita Development Corporation, Newport Beach.

The proposed 9,150 square foot two-fronted building, offering both front and rear entrances, will match in style the present Century Federal building, Johnson outlined.

The attractive councilwoman said also that her Corona post had made it impossible for her to attend daytime meetings to which she had been assigned as representative of the Placentia governing body. Among these are participation in the Orange County Vector Control District and a committee position on the Southern California Association of Governments. Her resignation will allow her more time for these.

She said she is interested in working towards a second masters degree.

"My future plans are indefinite at this time," Mrs. Farmer reported, adding that it is possible that at a later date she might seek a full time position.

paper before it is officially dispatched to the two districts. They also emphasized that the paper be headed by the following considerations:

1. Advantages and disadvantages of the annexation and the effect it would have on the educational program of the Placentia Unified School District.
2. The fiscal implications this merger would have on the Placentia Unified School District, the Yorba Linda School District, and the Fullerton Union High School District.

The next moves in the long discussion of the possible merger of the Yorba Linda District into PUSD which virtually surrounds it, would appear now to be with Yorba Linda and Fullerton.

standing ovation winning performance of "Matchmaker, Matchmaker" from "Fiddler on the Roof," and sing five other selections including a duet with Frank, another duet with Howard Dix, and in special arrangements a song entitled "Nobody Knows" backed by the "Bright Promise" singing group.

Howard Dix, tenor, will sing well known songs such as "Grand Old Flag" and "Yankee Doodle Dandy", oldies such as "Erie Canal" on which the "Bright Promise" will back him, the recent tender favorite "Sunshine on My Shoulder" written by John Denver and the Beatles well known "Yesterday."

This musical production will include songs sung from the 1750's on, tracing music through the years to the 1970's. Freeman, a baritone, will end the evening by singing a rousing version of Jim Croce's "Bad, Bad Leroy Brown." He will also sing the very stirring ballad, "You'll Never Walk Alone" backed by the "Bright Promise" singing group consisting of nine local area girls; Becky Perez, Sharon Roberts, Sue Leeper, Lynn Esposito, Karen Rush, Mona Moore, Laura Martin, Leslie Thompson and Terry Risberg. The "Bright Promise" can be heard in song every other Sunday at the third service of the Eastside Christian Church, where both Dix and Freeman are frequent soloists.

Joining the group will be Tim Schmidt, accomplished banjoist, playing songs from the early 1900's. Instrumental backing will be supplied by the Jim Sackett Orchestra. All special musical arrangements were expressly written by Frank Freeman for the July 4th presentation.

We Salute The Losers!

WINSOME even when they lose some, members of the Bob-Etts teams discovered this week that not everyone can win, even in the championship playoffs. The pretty loser above is Terry Ovanin, a member of the Whiz Kids who lost to the Tornados in the Minors division.

THIS CHEERING SECTION, however, was as much and more than anyone could ask for as they gave very vocal moral support. But even that doesn't always win the game. Somebody has to lose and in this case it was the pretty Bob-Etts in the picture on the right. They belong to the Raiders. And the winners were the Hot Peppers. They are Mary Eason [front from left], Paula Greer, Angela Ebert, in the Majors division. The cheerers are Kathy Thompson, Karen Cole and Nancy Nieuwlandt.

BRADFORD HOUSE

A hearing on the future disposition of the Bradford House, the home of the founder of the city of Placentia, will be on the agenda for the Placentia City Council Tuesday, July 6. The Heritage House, a gift to the city from Bradford heirs, is located on Palm Drive between Kraemer Boulevard and Bradford Avenue.

earmarked for capital improvements. Disagreements seem to result in the individual interpretation.

Additional items considered in the Tuesday budget session were an increase in funds for the city's Bicentennial and 50th birthday celebrations from $3,200 to $4,300. Heritage Festival Days also is requesting $1,300 for use to launch the city's annual parade with expectations that the money can be returned from a carnival expected to be revenue producing.

Considered in the Bicentennial activities, which will run through this calendar year are a drum and bugle corps show ($800); picture postcards of the city ($300); a special first day stamp cancellation ($400); a float for the Heritage Days parade ($200) and the burial of a time capsule, ranging in estimates from $500 to $2,000.

None of the items has been approved by council but are included in Bicentennial planned proposals. An additional allocation of $500 for juried art purchases in connection with the Heritage Festival also was mentioned.

Also brought to the attention of the council was the need for more athletic facilities caused by the growing popularity of youth athletic programs such as soccer. Another item mentioned was an Olympic sized swimming pool since local swimmers must now travel to Norwalk for regulation training practices.

The council has scheduled a joint meeting with the Recreation and Parks Commission on July 13 to receive input from an extensive study done by that group on the city's athletic facilities needs.

The 1976-77 fiscal year budget for Placentia is estimated to be $6,612,999 with 39 per cent or $2,512,122 earmarked for wages and benefits; 36 per cent or $2,306,331 for capital outlay and 25 per cent or $1,654,941 for materials; supplies and contractual services.

The new budget year begins on July 1.

THE MAYOR'S PRESENT--is one of the city's special Bicentennial Medallions enclosed in a transparent pendant. The special necklaces will be offered to the public for the first time at the Fourth of July celebration at Bradford Stadium. The enclosed medals have the Bicentennial insignia on one side, the Placentia Seal on the other.

The men are being held on $250,000 bond each and Mrs. McKay on $50,000.

A group of British doctors have used a special x-ray technique to examine 23 people, ten of whom had smoked marijuana regularly for periods of 3 to 11 years. All ten of the marijuana users were found to be suffering from cerebral atrophy, a form of permanent brain damage. These users exhibited loss of memory, difficutly in thinking clearly and diminished capacity for work.

The control group of 13 non-users suffered no such evidence of brain damage. This study alone does not prove that marijuana causes brain damage but it should certainly make marijuana smokers pause and consider the chance they may be taking.

OneShoe'sOffAndOneShoe'sHere

MISCELLANEOUS MOUNDS OF MISPLACED MATCHABLES--have been collecting at area schools throughout the school year. Whether it's a way of students getting rid of clothing they didn't like anyway or no one can quite remember what it was they were wearing, many items of clothing just don't seem to make it back home. Parents and students are being encouraged to come and retrieve their losses. This stack is at Tuffree Junior High School.

"Lost and found" departments usually turn up more "losts" than "founds," and secretaries throughout the Placentia Unified School District are trying to turn the statistics around.

And on July 6, the big lost-and-found boxes will be emptied in preparation for the summer and coming school year.

"We have coats, shoes, gym clothes and even underwear in our lost-and-found, which covers an area of about six cubic feet," said Joe Dunham, principal of Tuffree Junior High School.

At Kraemer Junior High, Secretary Jean Curran noted that "there are at least two or three hundred dollars worth of sweaters and jackets alone."

Staff members at Bernardo Yorba Junior High keep lost items for a month, then call a volunteer group from Orange County Medical Center to pick up unclaimed things. "That way someone gets use of the articles, rather than just letting them sit in a box," explained Secretary Nancy Farrell.

Perhaps the most interesting assortment lies in the big boxes at the district bus barn.

"We have everything from umbrellas to hand-embroidered shirts, including dozens of lunch pails," said Dispatcher Barbara Carrasco, who has been holding three pairs of children's glasses in her desk drawer awaiting calls from anxiou parents.

Children and their parents who want to try to find items lost during the school year have until Tuesday.

ELECTED

Creighton Mills of Beverly Hills, a senior majoring in political science, has been elected president of the Associated Students at UC Irvine for the 1976-77 academic year. Students elected to seats on the ASUCI Council include Daniel Field, Placentia, member-at-large.

Valencia Farm Awarded

The Future Farmers of America Chapters of three Orange County High Schools were honored for outstanding Farm Sanitation at the recent meeting of the Orange County Vector Control District Board of Trustees.

Orange High School accepted First Place honors, while Placentia's Valencia High School placed Second in the competition.

The annual awards are presented jointly by the District and the Orange County Farm Bureau. The awards are based on monthly inspections of all eleven high schools in the County which offer instruction in Agricultural Sciences.

The presentation was made to Future Farmers of America Chapter President Kim Topp and Instructor Barney Horan. In addition to a trophy plaque and certificate, the school also received $10.

The schools are scored on student effort to reduce or eliminate breeding sources which will produce disease vectors, such as, mosquitos, rats, and flies. Vector producing sources commonly associated with farming operations include animal watering facilities, animal waste storage and disposal facilities, and harvested field debris.

This Is A Recording

A program designed to reduce calling volume to directory assistance (information) operators will be introduced in Orange County next Tuesday, July 6, Pacific Telephone announced today.

Nine-second recorded announcements urging callers to use their phone directories will be used. The recordings have reduced call volumes to "411" operators by as much as 40 per cent in some areas, the company reports.

Locally, Pacific anticipates about a 25 per cent decrease in the more than 290,000 directory assistance calls made daily in Orange County.

The announcement states: "If you've checked your directory and are unable to find the number you wish, please stay on the line and a directory assistance operator will answer. Thank you."

When the program is totally phased in throughout the state, Pacific expects an annual savings of more than $11 million in directory assistance expenses.

GROUND BREAKING—Young David Patton was a tiny baby when he attended the ground breaking ceremonies for what became Lakeview Center. Last week he ran around as ground was broken for an additional building at the site, which will be a liquor store-delicatesan featuring Mexican food, Jewish food, and broasted chicken. Pictured are George Krebo and Don Bell from Rancho Construction; Alice Harcourt, store owner; Linda Smith, store manager; Karen Patton; David Patton; and Michael D. Patton. Patton represents the Santa Anita Development Corporation.

KATIE'S COLUMN or DOWN ON THE FARM by Kay Starr

It's O.K. with me, I told my youngest son if he wants to copy everything his big (and I mean big) brother does. He can grow big feet. He can grow taller than 6 foot (he's been taller than me for a long time so what's another inch or two.) He can learn to be a carpenter. He can drive like there's no tomorrow.

But I absolutely put my foot down on his copying the "moose call." Now this "moose call" is like nothing else you have ever heard. I can't understand why our yard is not knee deep in Moose.

My oldest has a sort of allergy and is constantly blowing his nose during seiges. He's waked me up at night, terror in my heart that we've been invaded. He's frightened the cats and dog for hours.

No matter how much I plead with him to be a little more gentle with his brains, he blows them out quite regularly, and the young boy is now doing the same.

I wonder if I could encourage them to run away to the circus as one of the side-show acts.? It would be unusual, if they could harmonize. Meanwhile, please keep your moose well-corraled.

As I water, fertilize and weed the patch of little trees for another grower, I get rather upset to see that some pesky gopher is dining on the delicate roots of these baby trees.

I am all thumbs when it comes to setting the traps, and I don't seem to be having much better luck putting out bait, but the other day, I did the next best thing, I clobbered the darn thing.

It really surprised me that I hit it, because everyone says I can't hit the broad side of a barn. It was a clean hit.

It reminded me of the first time I encountered gophers at our first farm. We were irrigating so his home must have gotten soggy.

He stuck his head out of the hole and started to climb out. I smashed him good with the shovel.

Red Carpet Bicen Decals

Press on decals, so popular with the younger set, are being offered completely free of charge by Red Carpet offices throughout Southern California.

The 8"x10" three color decal represents the famous American Shield, emblazoned with the stars and stripes and the phrase "Happy Birthday U.S.A. 1776-1976."

A Red Carpet spokesman said today that heavy demand has already resulted from word-of-mouth and the high visibility of the colorful decals on T-shirts throughout the Southland.

All Red Carpet offices, however are prepared to handle the demand and generous supplies of the decal are available at all Red Carpet Realtor locations.

Kids and adults alike are encouraged to stop by their neighborhood Red Carpet office in order to obtain their free bicentennial decal.

The decals are applied by iron.

Jean Schneider Weds

Miss Jean Ann Schneider and Dale Martin Andersen exchanged wedding vows June 19 in a ceremony at Chapman College Chapel with the Rev. Ralph Dornette officiating.

The newlyweds' parents are Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Schneider and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Andersen all of Placentia.

The bride wore a gown of satin backed crepe with the long sleeves and bodice overlay of pearled alencon lace. The cathedral train was also of pearled alencon lace. She wore a fingertip veil with beaded lace headpiece and carried a bouquet of white baby roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Maid of honor, Miss Kim Coker, wore pale yellow polyester with matching eyelet panel and yellow picture hat. She carried a bouquet of white daisies and yellow baby roses. Misses Sarah Ransom, Linda Vernier and Darla Anderson were the bridesmaids, identically gowned, carrying bouquets of white daisies.

James Bauman was best man and ushers were John Schneider, Michael Krueger and Don Andersen. Guest book attendant was Mrs. Michael Krueger.

The bride's mother wore a pale aqua gown with matching jacket and the bridegroom's mother wore a light blue gown and both wore corsages of orchids and roses.

A garden reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Out-of-state guests included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Henry Schneider of Jefferson City, Mo. and an aunt and cousin, Mrs. Eugene Thompson and Mark Thompson of Lohman, Mo.

Following a honeymoon trip to Northern California and Yosemite National Park, the couple will reside in Yorba Linda.

SCHOLARSHIPS were presented to Kim Coker and Kim Janetsky last week at a luncheon meeting of the Placentia-Linda Community Hospital Guild. Presenters on the left are guild president Mrs. Roy E. Roundy and scholarship chairman Frances Bovela.

Commission Continues Sign Request

A request for a proposed billboard size sign to be erected on Lakeview Avenue, south of Orangethorpe, was continued Tuesday night by the Placentia Planning Commission.

Applicant Art Goodman had requested a sign 20 feet by seven feet and erected 15 feet off the ground, for his bulk material and building supply materials storage yard.

Two of the commissioners wanted the sign reduced in size by 50 per cent and two voted against the reduction. With only four members of the commission present, it was decided to continue the request until the commission's next meeting on July 13.

The sign as described would be yellow, green and black.

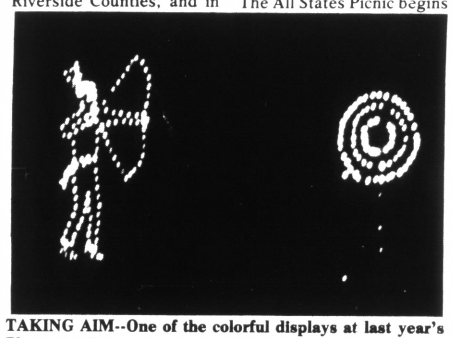
Sweet Adelines Entertain

The North Orange County Chapter of Sweet Adelines has been scheduled to sing at the Placentia All States Picnic in Kraemer Park on July 4. The group of 40 women will perform an Americana Extravaganza show, with four part harmony singing, featuring songs by George M. Cohan.

The NOC Sweet Adelines, directed by Luanne Krueger, are part of Sweet Adelines, Inc., a non-profit international four part harmony organization for women. The chapter is associated with and competes with other chapters in Orange, San Diego, and Riverside Counties, and in Arizona, New Mexico, and Western Texas.

Previously this year, the chapter has performed similar musical shows at Plummer Auditorium in Fullerton, the City of Brea, the Long Beach El Dorado Park American Celebration, and the dedication of the Fullerton Heritage House. Besides performing at these civic events, the group entertains at the Mental Health Facility in Anaheim, convalescent homes and retirement centers.

The Sweet Adelines will perform a one hour show starting at 3 p.m. in the Showmobile at the park. The All States Picnic begins at 2:30 p.m. This singing group plus all the other entertainment at Kraemer Park and in the evening at Bradford Stadium is provided free to residents of Placentia by the Placentia Bicentennial Committee.



TAKING AIM--One of the colorful displays at last year's Placentia Fireworks Show, takes form. This year an elaborate show is free to Placentia residents in observance of the nation's Bicentennial Celebration. The fireworks start at 9 p.m. Sunday, with entertainment preceeding.

Local Man Promoted

Placentia resident S.Q. Cannon has been named District Manager for Supplies for Pacific Telephone with headquarters in Santa Ana.

Cannon formerly was District Manager, Installation and Repair, in Riverside.

Cannon joined the Bell System in 1956 as an assistant engineer in Los Angeles after attending Brigham Young University in Utah and UCLA. He was named District Plant Manager in 1963 and was moved to his post in Riverside five years ago.

Mormons Salute America

At 7:30 a.m. on Saturday, July 3, the local Mormon community of Placentia and Yorba Linda will honor the birthday of this nation by holding a flag raising ceremony.

The event will take place on the front lawn of the chapel, located at 210 W. Livingston, Placentia.

There will be a short program with the ceremony, afterwhich, the Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts will furnish a pancake breakfast for those who desire to attend.

President Joseph W. Harris, Stake President, wishes to invite neighbors in the area or anyone, who so desires, to participate in this event.

The mormons have been known for their patriotism and for their love for their country. They teach their children to be loyal to their God and to their country, the church reports. They feel it a great honor to be able to pay tribute to their country on its 200th birthday through a flag raising ceremony.

The event is sponsored by the Stake Primary Association under the direction of Cynthia Simmons. The primary is the childrens organization for all children from ages 3 through 11. They meet weekly to be taught from the scriptures, to learn arts and skill, scouting and love and respect for their country, the church emphasized.

Game Booths For Fourth

Clubs and organizations in Placentia who would like to operate a game booth at the city's July 4th Bicentennial Celebration at Bradford Stadium, may still secure one, Richard Samp, Director of the city's Recreation Department stated this week.

"There are still a number of game booths available with games supplied for groups who would like to assume the responsibility," Samp explained.

Game and food booths will be open to the public after 5 p.m. at Bradford Stadium as a part of the city's day long Bicentennial July 4th effort.

Included at the stadium event will be live entertainment and a free $2,000 fireworks show.

The games and prizes are on consignment and the booths are free, Samp stated. Tables are not supplied for inside the booths which may be set up after 12 noon.

Food booths already planned include snow cones, corn-on-the-cob, hot dogs, popcorn, colas, orange, coffee, ice cream, root beer, bakery goods, Dr. Pepper and cotton candy. Food booths can be rented for $7.50 each.

Further information is available at 993-8184.

Game booths available include bottle ring, bumper car, shooting gallery, alley-oops, coke toss, puck five, lollipop tree, hi striker, pen game, pitch to win, 7-11, stand-it, swinger ball, tic-tac-toe, teddy bear toss, hoop-la and tip-the-cat.

Keep Fourth Happy For Pets

Bicentennial festivities and Fourth-of-July fireworks are "no blast-off celebration for pets" warns the California Veterinary Medical Association in a summer holiday alert.

Dr. Edward Bayer, California State Health Department Veterinarian, and Chairman of the Public Health Committee of the Veterinary Society, notes:

"Pets can be terrified by the loud explosions caused by fireworks, especially those animals who may be very high strung."

Even firework displays will bother some animals due to their sensitive hearing and their reaction to sirens and wailing noises. Also, during picnics and family gatherings, animals are frequently locked in closed cars, which can cause death due to heat prostration.

For "pet protection", keep them away from firecrackers and loud "happenings" during the Fourth-of-July holiday. (Tranquilizers may be given to pets who are especially apprehensive but only with medical advice for proper dosage and prescription.)

Heat prostration can be treated by taking the animal to a shady area and placing cool (or water soaked) cloths on their heads.

In case of serious injury, most areas provide emergency animal care during the holidays and on weekends. Consult the phone directory or your family veterinarian. Keep the Fourth "safe and sane" for pets as well as people.

Teacher Group At 1.8 Million

Burlingame----Teachers overwhelmingly voted for local units of the California Teachers Association (CTA/NEA) to represent them as sole bargaining agents under the state's new educational employee collective bargaining law in spring "consent elections" that ended June 16, it was announced today.

The Placentia Unified School District teachers' bargaining unit, the Placentia Unified Education Association, is also an affiliate of the California Teachers Association/National Education Association.

CTA President Stephen H. Edwards Jr. reported that CTA/NEA units won 23 of the 25 elections held and have officially challenged two elections, with possible runoffs in the fall. The winning elections involved some 5,280 teachers, or about 86.2 per cent of the 6,122 eligible to vote.

On top of this, Edwards added, school boards have officially recognized some 350 CTA/NEA units involving about 64,154 teachers, via the voluntary authorization card route. This brings the grand total of CTA/NEA bargaining units so far to about 373 representing about 70,434 teachers, with more volunteer units coming in every day.

"We view these elections victories and the voluntary opting for CTA/NEA as a trend for the voting that will come in the fall," Edwards declared. "Teachers identify with the superior services, negotations know-how and political clout of the 150,000-member CTA and the 1.8 million-member National Education Association (NEA) that has resulted in higher salaries, better working conditions and educational improvements for their pupils. Teachers want to be a part of this winning team."

A Woman's Touch in Little League

Yorba Linda Rangers have a few things on most Little League Teams. They won the first half of their division, they are tied for first in the second half of their division, and their manager is a woman.

Manager Peg Thompkins wasn't trying to prove any points when she got into the male dominated sport, she was just getting involved with two things she loves, baseball and little boys. As the mother of eight, she's had quite a bit of experience with both.

When her son joined Little League, she was asked to work in the snack shack in the usual way. Dealing daily with the wants and needs of eight youngsters, may have prepared her for the snack shack duties, but it certainly didn't make the job appealing.

Looking around for a more interesting way to contribute to the cause, she decided to try for umpire. The father in charge of umpires was startled but allowed, "I can't think of one reason to tell you no, so I guess the answer is yes." Thompkins then attended the umpire training school and went to work.

When a son signed up for Yorba Linda Little League (the previous experience was in Anaheim) she offered her services as an umpire. Before the season got beyond "Spring training", her son's manager was forced to resign. Mrs. Thompkins assumed his duties.

This year she was asked back as a manager and got her first experience with the draft. She and her coach, Ed McGinnis, then started work with their team. The results indicate something is working right.

The kids are winning, and the kids are having fun. Cheering is encouraged and jeering forbidden. The Ranger who makes a mistake knows he can expect to hear an analysis of his mistake--and lots of warm praise for the things he's doing right.

Thompkin's believes in lots of praise and encouragement. The idea is to try and to learn. The combination seems to add up to success, if one can judge by smiling faces and winning records.

Gallegos Horse Wins First Race

Pete and Gladys Gallegos, owners of Yorba Linda Feed at 18262 Imperial, not only cater to the needs of local horse owners and pet lovers, but they are active in quarter horse racing circles.

The Gallegos have five horses running at Los Alamitos Race Course and had the thrill of the first win for one of their horses on June 19.

Dust Devil I, trained by Pete, who handles the training of all his horses, plus training for public stables, came in first in the opening race on the night's card. The horse traveled the 350 yards in 18.11.

He paid $30.60 to win, $14.80 to place and $9 for show. Combined with the second place horse the $2 Exacta, being waged for the first time in the first race, paid $70.60.

The Gallegos' racing ventures and enthusiasm have rubbed off on Jim Kurz, whose Imperial Pet Supplies shares space in Yorba Linda Feed quarters. He has become co-owner of a two year old colt, "Limits Express."

[For photos of Dust Devil I's first win and winner's circle ceremonies see Yorba Linda Feed-Imperial Pet Supplies advertisement on Page 8].

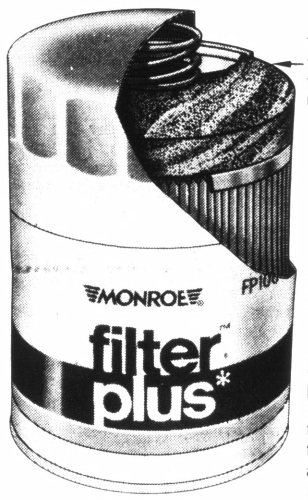
New from Monroe
No oil filter in the world does as much for your car.



The plus* in filter plus* the patented time release disc.

The Monroe Filter Plus™. A dramatic new concept in filters that does more than just filter oil. It's the first major change in oil filters since their invention.

Today's modern engine oils contain up to 20% chemical additives. Vital ingredients added by oil companies to give engines the protection they need...to prevent the buildup of sludge, maintain viscosity, fight wear and corrosion.

But these chemicals wear out as you drive.

Now the revolutionary new Monroe Filter Plus with the patented timed-release disc rebuilds the additives as they wear out... automatically. The result: better engine protection.

It's like changing your oil every mile you drive.

No matter how often you change oil, the new Monroe Filter Plus™ will give your engine better lubrication than an ordinary filter. Try one!

Provided will be hamburgers, hot dogs, buns, relish, ice cream and beverages. Hamburgers will cost 50 cents; hot dogs 40 cents and ice cream for a donation.

Fireworks will be purchased as a package and the cost will be shared by those attending the celebration, the church outlined.

School For Young Ones

This fall Yorba Linda Friends Church, 5211 Lakeview, will be opening its doors to kindergarteners for the first time.

The same loving Christian atmosphere will be offered that has been available to pre-schoolers for the last year.

The kindergarten program will emphasize reading readiness, strong phonics and individual attention.

Spacious classrooms and a well-equipped playground area all help to make the child's learning experience a joyous one.

The classes will be small in number, taught by a full-time teacher with a California State Credential, and an aide. Classes will be held in the morning from 8:45 to 12:15.

The community is lovingly invited to come visit the school and pre-register their kindergarteners. Children of all denominations are welcome. Contact Jo Gilpin, 528-7047.

The clinic reminds residents that blood pressures can also be checked every Tuesday evening at the Clinic, 900 S. Melrose Avenue, Placentia, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Anyone is welcome to attend.

The Placentia Community Clinic is still seeking a microscope and assorted storage cabinets.

Carol Dickinson Due Home Friday

On Friday, July 2, Carol Dickinson will return from one year in Naples, Italy, where she served as a short term missionary under the Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission Society.

Miss Dickinson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Dickinson, 4651 Briarhill Drive in Yorba Linda.

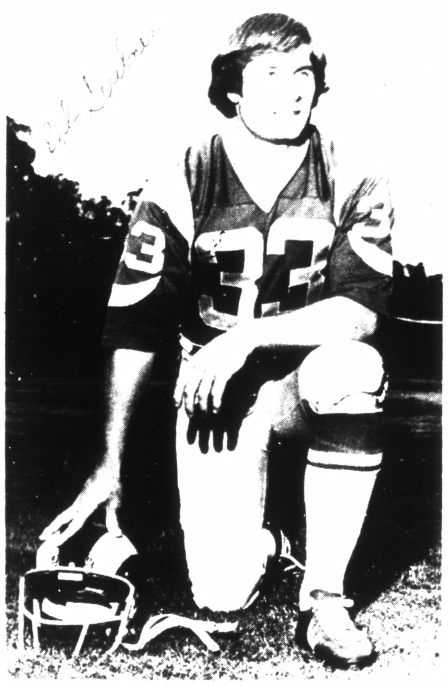
On Friday evening her friends will have a Welcome Home Potluck for her at Faith Baptist Church where Miss Dickinson and her family have been active members for 11 years. Carol graduated from Troy High School in 1973 and attended Fullerton College for two years.

Miss Dickinson first learned of the Missionary Assistants Corps (MAC) in November of 1974. After she learned of her acceptance as Field Secretary in Naples, she spent several months raising the needed monthly support and transportation costs, finally leaving for Italy June 16, 1976.

Her duties were many, including one week a month in Rome handling correspondence for Rev. William Portis whose main ministry is taking Christian films, dubbing them into Italian for marketing; one day a week at Castellamare assisting the Field Treasurer; singing at the little Italian church she attended in Soccavo; and assisting at the Christian Servicemen's Center in Naples, preparing meals, washing dishes, playing ping pong, singing - all in addition to her regular duties at the Field Director's office in Naples.

Perhaps Miss Dickinson best summed up her experiences and feelings in a recent prayer letter: "I've made a 9,000 mile move to a totally different land and culture, to a people and language I don't understand, to work long hours away from family and friends, from a lovely house to a small apartment, from a peaceful and quiet home to a street so noisy you can't believe it, from all the elbow room I could ever want to a place so crowded it's a constant battle just to make your way down the street and finally, from my own "safe" little world to a place where I'm stared at as though I were some strange creature....Boy, I must be crazy!!!!

"But, I wouldn't change ANY of it for what the Lord has taught me through it all. I've learned to give thanks even for small things, such as, my little portable gas stove in the office to keep me 'warm.' I've learned a new depenence on God and His Word - that I CAN do all things through Christ! (What a strengthener and encouragement that has been!) I've learned a new awareness of the power of prayer. And, I've even learned how much fun snow-skiing is! I think I'm hooked! -----"



ROB SCRIBNER, running back for the Los Angeles Rams, will be the guest speaker at a Community Program scheduled for the morning of the Fourth of July. The special assembly, open to the public, will be held at the Valencia High School Auditorium. The program begins at 10 a.m.

RAYDRA INTERIORS

"Peggy's Pointers"

Girl's bedrooms can be a lot of fun to decorate. When thinking about a room plan for a little girl, remember that she'll be a big girl before your purchases wear out. Therefore, try to decorate her room for the future as well as the present.

Storage problems in a girl's room are difficult, as girls usually need hanger space in closets and shelf space as well. Try building an additional shelf above the original shelf above the hanger dowell in the closet for extra storage.

When you choose furniture, try to select pieces which can be added to at a later time. There are many smart looking groups on the market which offer desks, storage chests, bookcases, beds, etc. which can be bought in open stock.

Speech Year Successful

Valencia's annual speech party held recently signified an end of the speech team's most successful year ever.

Under the direction of coach John Denke, the debate team began its string of victories early when Steve Oliver and Tom Moynihan captured the Loyola Summer Institute. In the process, they defeated the Arizona State champions from the previous year.

Throughout the year, the debate team continued to score victories. Journeying from San Diego to San Francisco, varsity debaters consistently marked high with the judges.

Individual speakers also scored high. Steve Olivier advanced to the third [redacted] of the Lions Club oratorical contest before he was eliminated. Randy Oliver won the Placentia competition of the American Legion oratorical contest and later earned a $1,000 bond in the Bicentennial Youth Debates. Also, Tom Moynihan captured a $100 bond.

In addition to accomplishments before the service clubs, speakers did well in Orange League competition. Four speakers qualified to go to the state tournament including Moynihan, Oliver, Olivier, and Mike Porter.

Oliver advanced to the semi-final round in Congress. Moynihan also qualified to compete in the National Speech Tournament in Colorado.

Novice speakers also did well, capturing two sweepstakes trophies and a variety of individual awards. DeNike was awarded the title of Orange County Speech Coach of the Year.

THEN...Ready to face life together after their wedding in April of 1924 are Jean and Marie Nougues. The long time residents of the Yorba Linda-Placentia area have compiled an interesting account of their honeymoon and other facets of their life recounted in an accompanying article.

Honeymoon Remembered

[Jean Nogues of Yorba Linda came into the Star office recently with a framed, hand written account of his honeymoon with his wife, Marie, and detailing some other facts about these two long time residents of the area. He also supplied the accompanying photos taken shortly after they were married and on their wedding anniversary this year. We found it to be an interesting account and thought our readers would enjoy it. Editor.]

The Memories of Jean and Marie Nougue's Honeymoon.

My wife and I were married April 4, 1924 at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Fullerton. Soon after, we decided to have a little honeymoon in a quiet place.

I had a homestead in the Mojave Desert, we were sure that was the right place. We took food, couple of gallons of water with our 1920 Model T Ford.

On the way we stopped at many places and fixed some flat tires. We saw the gold mines. I noticed that Marie was not interested at all, she was afraid of so many holes, the car was jumping too much and the night came.

In my ranch there were 160 acres, one room cabin, nothing more, but plenty of rabbits, turtles, squirrels and coyotes as guardians.

Soon it was too dark and we could not find the place so I had to admit to Marie that we were lost and had to sleep inside the car. We did not sleep much because the seats on the Ford were too short. I was wondering if my bones were all broken.

The coyotes were noisy and were looking at us through the window. When daylight came we saw our cabin not too far.

As the room was not ready for occupancy at that time, it was too sandy inside and we could not see anything. We decided to cook our breakfast outside, like the miners.

The bacon, potatoes, eggs, coffee were smelling good but a big wind came and took all our food away. We decided to go to a restaurant 20 miles away and then came back to the cabin.

After a couple of days we went home to our dry farm in Placentia.

In 1935 we bought two groves in Yorba Linda. Our home was on Rose Drive where Von's is now. We sold our properties in 1964 and bought our new home at 4201 Prospect, Yorba Linda. It's a mile from the other place. We love it and probably it will be our last moving.

Our 50 years of married life has been hard work, many inconveniences, but always happy. We thank God for giving us many years of pleasure. Since we retired we do not do much.

We have good appetites, we are in good health, we tell some histories and take care of the yard. At 80 years, what do you expect? We pray that God will give us a few more years to live together in our "Home, Sweet Home."

Homeowners Elect New Officers

Mrs. Larry (Kathy) McKnight has been elected president of the Placentia Golden Homeowners Association, the group reported this week. She succeeds Mrs. Jack (Zoe) Long, in the office.

Chosen first vice president was Joe Iwanaga; second vice president, Bob Nuhnau; secretary, Carolyn Krause; treasurer, Donna Allen and Newsletter editor, Mrs. Long.

The group was first formed when zoning problems developed with the city of Brea over an industrial tract planned adjacent to the expensive homes on the Placentia border.

The homeowners have gone to court twice to seek some acceptable solutions to the problem.

Council Joins Testimonial For Updegraffs

The veteran executive secretary of the Orange County Division of the League of California Cities, Winston Updegraff, will be feted at a farewell party at Ben Brown's Restaurant at the Laguna Beach Country Club, Thursday, July 15.

The party will be a combined event with League of California Cities members attending the Pageant of the Masters at the Irvine Bowl.

Placentia City Council members voted last Tuesday night four to one abstention to contribute $50 to a going away present for Updegraff and Mrs. Updegraff for a return trip to Europe.

Updegraff is being replaced by Carolyn Ewing, former mayor of Yorba Linda.

FINGERPRINT SYSTEM--Printrak 250 automatic Fingerprint Identification System built by Rockwell's Autonetics Group automatically reads and classifies key fingerprint data from arrest cards for storage and subsequent retrieval. System, which can store into millions of fingerprints, processes arrest cards at the rate of 600 an hour and can provide printed readout of information on criminals, including prior arrest records.

Autonetics Helps Mounties Get Their Man

Fingerprint identification capability of the Royal Candian Mounted Police will be enhanced with the purchase of an automated fingerprint system from Rockwell International's Autonetics Group.

The new equipment, purchased for the R.C.M.P. by the Canadian federal Department of Supply and Services under a $1.5 million contract, will be integrated with an Ampex Corporation-built videofile system the Royal Canadian Mounted Police now has in operation.

The Rockwell equipment includes a fingerprint identification system that automatically converts data from fingerprint cards to computer-usable data for storage and subsequent retrieval, and a system that can match a single or partial fingerprint left at the scene of a crime--called a latent--against those already on file.

Normally, the fingerprint identification system electronically reads, classifies, and files key fingerprint identification information directly from cards at a rate up to 600 cards an hour. For Royal Canadian Mounted Police use, however, the system will be equipped to convert fingerprint images already filed on video tape to computer data for processing and storage.

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police maintain a file or more than one million criminal fingerprint cards, and operate three eight-hour shifts processing an average of 1,000 sets of fingerprints each day received from throughout Canada. The addition of the Rockwell equipment is expected to speed-up the process considerably.

"Despite the popular belief fostered by fiction writers and television shows, this operation is normally so time-consuming and costly that it is rarely done, or done on a small scale," said a company official.

"Wonderama" Host Stages Show

Bob McAllister, television's "Wonderama" host will bring his touring show, "Kids Are People, Too," to Anaheim High School Auditorium, Sunday, July 25. Two benefit performances will be given at 1 and 3 p.m.

Each show will contain music, games, a sing-a-long and give-aways for the youngsters. Children under the age of five must be accompanied by an adult.

McAllister's Orange County appearance is being sponsored by Women's American ORT, Organization for Rehabilitation through Training. Proceeds will be used to further ORT's world-wide system of 600 vocational education installations. Each year 60,000 disadvantaged young people are taught the modern skills that will enable them to live productive lives.

Local ORT chapters can fill ticket requests through Bobbie Kaplan, Placentia, or Sylvia Schmidt, Placentia at 524-9712. Or write: ORT, 1833 E. 17th St., #113, Santa Ana, Ca. 92701 (enclose self - addressed stamped envelope). Tickets are $4.50, $3.50 and $2.50, the group advises.

Professors Chosen for CSUF Faculty Council

Dr. John W. Bedell, a sociologist whose research areas include alcohol and drug abuse, is the new chair of the Faculty Council at California State University, Fullerton. He succeeds Dr. Robert C. Belloli of Placentia, associate professor of chemistry.

Elected as council secretary was Dr. Paul W. Kane of Yorba Linda who chairs the teacher education division.

Included in the council's nine-member executive committee are Belloli, Placentia, the immediate past chair and Dr. James F. Woodward of Placentia, associate professor of history.

Convention Attendance

Two officials of the Yorba Linda County Water District returned recently from the annual national convention of the American Water Works Association which ended June 25 in New Orleans.

They are director Howard Lindow and operations manager Pete Royere.

They attended sessions on ground water management, water quality, water treatment technology, problems and solutions in water works construction and the protection of ground water quality.
